Keune Senior Design Ambassador Gareth Palmer brings a unique, fresh approach to haircutting. He was classically trained by a competition champion in Australia. With his experience he has helped create programs for Keune in the field inspiring his creativity as well as working closely with other top Keune education team members. He has refined his style to a total concept approach, keeping in mind the “Total Look” when teaching design. Gareth’s engaging charisma makes learning fun with any class he teaches.
